

IN THE SENATE OF THE UNITED STATES.

LETTER

FROM

THE SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY,

TRANSMITTING

Supplemental estimate of amounts due certain officers of the Navy.

MARCH 1, 1893.—Referred to the Committee on Appropriations and ordered to be printed.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
February 28, 1893.

SIR: I have the honor to transmit, herewith, copy of a communication from the Fourth Auditor, of the 27th instant, submitting a supplemental estimate of amounts found due certain officers of the Navy for moneys expended by them when traveling under orders and payable from pay, Navy, miscellaneous, for the fiscal year 1892, $226.90. This is additional to the sum of $658.60 for the same object transmitted by this Department to the Senate on the 25th instant.

Respectfully, yours,

CHARLES FOSTER,
Secretary.

The PRESIDENT OF THE SENATE.

TREASURY DEPARTMENT,
OFFICE OF THE FOURTH AUDITOR,
Washington, D. C., February 27, 1893.

SIR: I have the honor to state that since my letter of the 25th instant, in regard to "deficiencies, 1892," a further sum of $226.90 is found to be necessary for the payment of a claim under "pay, miscellaneous," and that amount should be added to the $658.60 then estimated for.

Very respectfully,

JOHN R. LYNCH,
Auditor.

The SECRETARY OF THE TREASURY.
